A Local Place Plan for the Nairn area

Initial Community Survey

The Nairn Local Place Plan (LPP) community conversation aims to create a shared vision and plan of action for the development of the Nairn area over the next 10 years.

This survey is designed to start the process of finding out what you and the wider community think about Nairn and its future.

The information gathered will begin to identify the issues that the Nairn Local Place Plan might need to address. It will also help us design the public engagement events and activity over autumn 2023, which we hope you will also be able to feed into.

More Information on how you can have your say will be shared in due course. To stay abreast of what is happening you can sign up to our email mailing list via the LPP webpage:

Submissions will close on midnight Friday 1st September 2023

This is a community led initiative by NICE, (Nairn's Community Development Trust) with support from local Community Councils and business groups, and professional back up from Highland Council's Local Development Planning team and independent charity Planning Aid Scotland
